Impact of nuclear tests on Internal Security Environment

1177. SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE:
SHRI NILOTPAL BASU:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have undertaken any study for evaluating the impact of our nuclear tests in May, 1998 on the internal security environment of the country as the tests were primarily designed to act as deterrent for cross-border terrorism;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L. K. ADVANI): (a) India's nuclear tests in May, 1998 were undertaken to demonstrate that India has a credible nuclear deterrent and to reassure the Indian people that Government attaches the highest priority to addressing India's security concerns. The rationale for the tests has been elaborated in the paper entitled "Evolution of India's Nuclear Policy" tabled in the Parliament on May 27, 1998.

(b) and (c) Does not arise.

Dual Citizenship to NRIs

1178. SHRI J. CHITHARANJAN:
SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are considering a proposal to confer dual citizenship by issuing a Person of Indian Origin (PTO) card to Non-residents Indians; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and purpose therefor?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) and (b) The Government is appointing a Committee to examine to entire issue of 'dual nationality'. This Committee will hold wide consultations, elicit public opinion, examine the pros and cons of different options and formulate recommendations on the question of Dual nationality or any suitable varient. A scheme for the issuance of a Persons of Indian Origin (PIO) card for those living abroad and having foreign passports is also being finalised separately. The PIO card would confer on its holder a range of special benefits, including a visa-free regime and several other facilities in the economic, financial and educational fields.

Disappearance of Charas from Trilokpuri P.S.

1179. SHRI ISH DUTT YADAV:
PROF. RAM GOPAL YADAV:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether 500 kg of confiscated charas disappeared from Trilokpuri Police Station in New Delhi;

(b) if so, the persons responsible for the loss; and

(c) the action proposed agaisnt those responsible for the loss?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) The investigation into this case is in progress.

Extremist Activities in Tripura

1180. SHRI GAYA SINGH:
SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there has been a steep rise in the number of extremist attacks on innocent people in the remote border State of Tripura;

(b) if so, the number of such incidents during the current year and the number of people killed;

(c) whether the General Secretaries of CPI and CPI(M) had met the Prime Minister recently and submitted a memorandum requesting for the restoration of the strength of army battalions deployed in the State; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) During the current year upto December 2, 1998, 145 civilians have been killed in 311 incidents of extremist related violence in Tripura.

(c) and (d) Yes, Sir. The General Secretaries of CPI and CPI(M) met the Prime Minister recently and submitted a memorandum requesting deployment of additional Central Para Military Forsees and army in Tripura. The deployment of Central Forces in States depends upon over all security scenario and the availability of such forces. Accordingly Central Forces, including the Army and Assam Rifles, have been deployed in Tripura keeping in view the overall availability of these forces. The security requirements of the State of Tripura are reviewed constantly. Government of India are fully alive to the security situation in the State.

Regorous Punishment for Sex-abuse

1181. SHRI RAJUBHAI A. PARMAR: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether in view of the ever increasing incidence of crime against women in the country, Government lately propose to provide for more deterrent and rigorous punishments for offence involving sex abuse and chastity of women especially rapes and outraging of modesty including child prostitution; and

(b) if so, the details of the added deterrents contemplated?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) and (b) The laws relating to crimes against women, children and other weaker sections of the society are constantly under review and have been amended from time to time to meet the requirements. The Central Government is presently interacting with the State Governments on the question of providing capital punishment for rapists.

Attack on Christian Missions

1182. SHRI JANARDHANA POOJARY:
DR. B.B. DUTTA:
MISS SAROJ KHAPARDE:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there was an attack on a Christian Mission in Jhabua district of Madhya Pradesh recently;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) the number of attacks on Christian Missions in Gujarat and Madhya Pradesh during 1997 and 1998; and

(d) the steps taken by Government to safeguard the interests of minorities?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) to (b) Yes, Sir. As per the reports received by the Union Government, in the early hours of September 23, 1998 about 25 miscreants forced their entry into the nunnery situated in the Bhandaria Church Compound, Nawapara, Distt. Jhabua and looted cash (Rs. 25/0,000), valuables and allegedly gang-raped four nuns. A case has been registered at Police Station Kalyan Pur on 23.9.1998 in this connection. Investigations revealed that 24 culprits including 12 Christians tribals were involved and of these 22 culprits have been arrested. Most of the stolen goods have also been recovered.

In another incident, on September 26, 1998, four unidentified persons made an attempt to break open the door of the Catholic Mission at Jamli, PS, Raipura, Distt. Jhabua. They cut off the telephone lines, damaged the lights and also demanded money, but escaped on arrival